STUDENT INTERVIEW POLICY

Regis Jesuit High School policy is not to allow media sources to interview, shoot video and/or photograph our students or use such materials in non-school publications or broadcasts without parental consent. To request consent, please contact the Director of Communications who will serve as liaison between the requesting agency and parents involved.

CAMPUS ACCESS POLICY

Personnel with appropriate credentials from media organizations are welcomed to campus to cover athletic contests hosted by Regis Jesuit High School without special permission other than to present their credentials when requested by school or CHSAA officials. For any other reason, members of the media MUST request permission from the Director of Communications to come on to any portion of the Regis Jesuit campus prior to their visit. We are first and foremost a school, so request your respect of this policy so that we may maintain the integrity of our educational environment.

REQUESTED NAME REFERENCE AND LOGO/IMAGE USAGE POLICY

Regis Jesuit High School is one school with two divisions—a Boys Division and a Girls Division offering a primarily single gender academic experience. We are not two separate schools. Rooted in the nearly 500 year-old tradition of Ignatian education around the world, we are the only Jesuit high school in the United States to operate with this innovative model that combines the advantages of single gender instruction with opportunities for young men and women to serve, pray and socialize together.

Referencing the school as Regis Jesuit High School on first mention and Regis Jesuit, RJ or RJHS in subsequent usage is our communications standard. We appreciate all references to the name of the school follow this standard and not to be referred to as just Regis or Regis High School.

In terms of mascot, we are the Regis Jesuit Raiders, RJ Raiders or simply, the Raiders. We ask that you refrain from using the phrase Red Raiders, in reference to our teams or student groups. We also do not refer to our girls teams as Lady Raiders or Raiderettes.

Regis Jesuit®, the Crest and RJ logos are federally registered trademarks owned by Regis Jesuit High School. Regis Jesuit High School has reserved all rights to the use of our marks, including our unique name, school colors, mascot, mission statement, motto and all associated logos. These artifacts are intended for the strict use of Regis Jesuit only. Customary permissions to use the Regis Jesuit name, mascot name, school colors and the like are extended to the media offering coverage of the school and members of its community in news reporting. Anyone desiring to use any of the above for other purposes must have the expressed written consent of the Communications Office, which may be obtained by contacting the Director of Communications using the information listed above.

Thank you for your consideration.

STUDENT BODY PROFILE

Our student body is approximately 65% Catholic and 34% Christian with the other 1% being of a non-Christian faith tradition or unspecified. Twenty-seven percent of our student population is non-white with approximately 11% being of Hispanic or Latino origin, 5% being Black or African-American and 4% of Asian ancestry. The remaining students report as multi-racial, Native American or Pacific Islander. Just over 1% prefer not to disclose their ethnic background. Our students come to us from more than 100 primary schools in 90 different zip codes across the Denver Metro area.

ADMISSIONS

Candidates take an entrance exam, complete the application for admission and provide the school with recommendations and transcripts. Candidates may also accompany a current freshman through his/her classes and experience life at Regis Jesuit through our Shadow Program. All applicants may take part in a personal interview with a member of the Regis Jesuit faculty, though this is not required.

TUITION & FEES

Tuition for the 2018-19 academic year is $16,875. Incoming students paid a $400 registration fee, which was credited toward tuition.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Regis Jesuit is awarding $4.25 million in financial aid to nearly 25% of the student body for the 2018-19 school year. The average aid grant is more than $10,000 or approximately 60% of the cost of tuition.

PASTORAL & SERVICE PROGRAMS

The Pastoral Program uses a multi-faceted approach to foster spiritual and moral growth in Regis Jesuit students that includes regular Masses and other liturgies, reconciliation, days of recollection, a yearly retreat, theological study, participation in service, prayer and the completion of a Capstone Project senior year. Participation in the Service and Retreat programs is required of all students in all four years.

ATHLETICS

We view our athletic program as part of our Ignatian approach to education—one that encourages our students to excel in all aspects of their lives and is focused on formation of the whole person. The field, court, pitch, pool and mat are all extensions of the classroom—critical thinking skills learned in class are leveraged in making game time decisions. Being part of a team fosters relationships beyond the academic realm.

---

BOYS

Baseball, Basketball, Cross Country, Football, Golf, Ice Hockey, Lacrosse, Rugby (Club), Soccer, Swim & Dive, Tennis, Track & Field, Wrestling, Volleyball (Club)

OUR MISSION and VALUES

MISSION STATEMENT

Regis Jesuit High School—a Catholic educational community—engages the gifts of young men and women in a single-gender environment, fosters faith in Jesus Christ and promotes justice and mercy, develops critical minds and nurtures compassionate hearts to serve others—all for the greater glory of God.

VALUES STATEMENTS

- Regis Jesuit values a diverse community that cares for individuals who demand more of themselves intellectually, socially, emotionally, spiritually and creatively.
- Regis Jesuit values a rigorous college-prep curriculum combined with an innovative approach to learning that develops the entire person and prepares students to respond to the challenges facing the world with new and creative solutions.
- Regis Jesuit values an environment in which students feel safe, valued and respected as they develop a strong moral compass, overcome personal prejudices and connect to the broader world. Students find the motivation and confidence to make decisions rooted in faith.
- Regis Jesuit values most of all spiritual growth through which students come to own their faith as they experience God as one who loves them and calls them to a personal relationship that shapes the rest of their lives. Service opportunities enable them to understand how they can make a difference in the world by using their talents and resources for a faith that does justice.

OUR VISION

PROFILE OF THE GRADUATE AT GRADUATION

Regis Jesuit aims to form a community of individuals who embody the school’s mission and values by being Open to Growth, Intellectually Competent, Religious, Loving and Committed to Doing Justice.

OPEN TO GROWTH

Regis Jesuit graduates have the maturity to take responsibility for their own actions and growth. Graduates know that learning is a life-long process of intellectual, spiritual, and personal development. Graduates understand that having experiences outside of their worldview is important to their development.

INTELLECTUALLY COMPETENT

Regis Jesuit graduates master those academic requirements necessary for advancing their formal education and skillfully using the fundamental tools of learning. Moreover, graduates realize the need to practice intellectual integrity.

RELIGIOUS

Regis Jesuit graduates, through study of the Roman Catholic faith, will come to know and experience God as one who understands and loves them completely and is there for them through their suffering and joy. Graduates have a deep understanding of and respect for their own religious traditions and those of others. They also have a strong foundation in personal prayer, spirituality, moral conscience and religious conviction. They seek to know God by proclaiming and responding to His love through the scriptures and especially through Jesus Christ in the Gospels and the Holy Spirit in prayer and in daily life.

LOVING

Regis Jesuit graduates move beyond self-interest and self-centeredness. They are confident and seek deeper levels of relationships in which one can disclose feelings, accept the mystery of another person, and cherish that person. They experience God’s love and respond by loving self, family, friends, members of the school community, the poor and the suffering as people of God. They understand that love gives witness to faith and speaks out through action and service on behalf of a world community for justice, love and peace.

COMMITTED TO DOING JUSTICE

Regis Jesuit graduates acquire the awareness, skills and motivation necessary to live as Men and Women with and for Others who are leaders through service in imitation of Christ Jesus. Graduates are committed to justice that is grounded in the knowledge of the roots of injustice in social institutions, attitudes and customs and understand the values of a consumer society can be in conflict with the demands of a just society and the Gospel. They express their empathy for others and a commitment to doing justice by voluntarily engaging in service.
Founded in 1877, Regis Jesuit High School is a Catholic, Jesuit, college preparatory high school serving young men and young women in grades 9-12. As the only co-divisional school among the network of more than 60 Jesuit high schools in the United States, Regis Jesuit is unique and innovative. We offer a primarily single-gender instructional experience to young men and young women, while providing opportunities for them to learn, serve, pray and socialize together. One of the defining characteristics of a Jesuit school is that it provides more than education, but formation as well. The hallmark of Jesuit education is cura personalis, the care and concern for the individual. Regis Jesuit High School engenders that by providing a student-centered environment in which each individual can grow intellectually, physically, socially, emotionally and spiritually.

Academically, Regis Jesuit offers honors classes and Advanced Placement courses, as well as many electives. The school has an alternating day block schedule with a total of eight periods offered over a two-day sequence. Students must be enrolled in at least seven courses each semester. The eighth period is used for students to participate in the advisory program, student activities, religious services and other pastoral and enrichment activities. Athletic and co-curricular activities offer many opportunities for character and leadership development, fun and friendship. Regis Jesuit offers a safe and supportive environment that encourages students to get involved. It is an environment where students can find positive peer pressure by surrounding themselves with people who both care deeply about them and will challenge and help them to excel.

The school operates on a beautiful 82-acre expanse called Campbell Campus after a key alumnus and benefactor. The Boys Division and the Girls Division each have their own academic building with a full size gym, multi-media library and chapel. Our campus also offers facilities shared by both boys and girls, including nine athletic fields, six tennis courts, field house and pool, performing arts center, college counseling office, broadcast studio, student commons, ceramics lab and spacious grounds. The campus feels like that of a small college with a breathtaking view of the Rocky Mountains.
Academic Overview

ACADEMIC PROGRAM
Admission to Regis Jesuit High School is based on previous academic record, entrance exam scores and teacher recommendations. All students follow a rigorous academic track of college preparatory classes. The theology program at Regis Jesuit is an integral part of our school’s identity, as it embodies our mission to develop the entire person.

Regis Jesuit High School traces its origins to Las Vegas College and was founded in 1877 in Las Vegas, New Mexico by Jesuits from Naples, Italy. In 1884, the Jesuits opened a second school in Morrison, Colorado. Four years later, the Las Vegas and Morrison schools were merged in the College of the Sacred Heart—which later became Regis College and then Regis University—and moved to West 52nd Avenue and Lowell Boulevard in northwest Denver.

In 1921, the high school and college were formally separated into two distinct entities. In 1979, they became separate corporations. With the completion of a new high school building on the college campus in 1984, Regis Jesuit High School moved out of the Regis University facilities, but soon outgrew that building as well. On September 16, 1989, the cornerstone was laid for the new campus in Aurora, Colorado. Classes began on the Campbell Campus the following September.

In January 1997, Regis Jesuit purchased an additional 35 acres adjacent to the Campbell Campus in hopes of expanding the campus at some point. In 2001, the Board of Trustees, with the support of the Archdiocese of Denver, voted to open a second division of the school. The addition would offer the same high quality, single gender educational experience to young women as the school had offered young men since its inception. On April 11, 2003, ground was broken for a new facility for the Boys Division, and plans were made to renovate the existing school building for the arrival of the Girls Division in 2004.

In the fall of 2003, the Girls Division opened at St. Catherine’s Greek Orthodox Church with 170 freshmen and sophomores. For the 2004-05 school year, the Girls Division moved into their refurbished building on the Campbell Campus, while the Boys Division started classes in their new building on the same campus.

With the addition of the Girls Division, Regis Jesuit became only the second Jesuit school in the world to offer an all-girls education (the other is in the Philippines) and is the only co-divisional Jesuit school in the country.

In February 2014, the Steele Center, containing facilities for the performing arts, communications, college counseling as well as a student commons area, opened between the two Divisions. It was originally called the Performing Arts Center & Student Commons, but as renamed in June 2015 in honor of Rev. Philip G. Steele, SJ ’66, who served as the school’s President from 2006-15. With facilities intended for use by all students, it is both the physical and spiritual heart of the school. A statue of the school’s patron, St. John Francis Regis, by Bolivian-born artist, Pablo Eduardo, was installed in front of the Steele Center in October 2016, further enlivening this shared space.

One of the school’s strategic objectives, securing the last piece of open property adjacent to the campus, was accomplished in April 2017 when an additional 18 acres of land was purchased from the long-time owner. How this additional land, which brings the campus size to 82 acres, will be used will be determined through a master planning process currently underway.

During the 2017-18 school year, the school celebrated 140 years since its founding by noting the tremendous journey of the institution thus far. During this school year, the institution also completed an assessment of its organizational structure and began moving to a structure with one principal overseeing academic and affective programming with the support of several cross-divisional administrators. The goals of the change was to streamline communications and decision making and to improve the single gender educational experience we offer. This structure went into effect during the summer of 2018 and is slated to be implemented fully and in steady state operational mode by 2020.
